

PATEROS

EXPLORE PATEROS

Water Tower Art (reflector) Mural
by Richard C. Elliot (1992)
Re-installation (2016)
A must see at night
You can light it up with a flash light

Pateros Mall - "Our Main Street"
Designed by Mid-Century Architect
Don Hollingsberry
Pedestrian access to post office & library retail, and restaurant businesses

3 Memorial to the Methow Tribe
"A Tribute to Local Indian History"
Fisherman Sculpture (2017) By Virgil "Smoker" Marchand
Native Interpretive Center
Sculptures
Teepee
Salmon Bake Event Center
Pictographs

4 Pateros Schools
Home of the Billy Goats
(Follow the Tracks)
Home of
Richard Beyer's
Sculpture
"Fish Swimming over Old Pateros"

5 Billy Joe Sloan, the Fishing Dog Sculpture
by Richard C. Elliot (1995)
On large rock in Columbia river
1 Mile south of town by boat
Prototype in Pateros Museum

6 MUSEUM & VISITOR CENTER
Local History on Display
Exhibits Include: Old Pateros, Wells
Dam, The Fruit Industry, Fur Trade, Fort
Okanogan, Pateros Schools & Sports,
Steamboats, & 2014 Carlton Complex
Fire.

MAKE PATEROS BASECAMP FOR 4 SEASONS OF RECREATION

Visit Pateros Visitor Center; 113 Lakeshore Drive for more info

